Dear Son and Daughter

Received Harriets letter a little awhile ago to day, also a card from Carl last Saturday, glad to hear that you are both well and happy. We are all o.k. at home, Cecil is not going on his vacation before next week, around the 7 of June. Last Sunday evening C. and Gladys had a little party just all together, had a good time. The weather here is cloudy and foggy, did not see the sun yesterday or too day yet, but no rain in sight according to the weather man. Dickinson family is all right, Ross was here last night for dinner, Ma is just phoning too Daisy they have too talk every so often through the day, I wish you where a little closer so we could phone you also, oh well after awhile you will. Yes I am glad that Carl will write to Uncle Harry, he will be glad to hear from you, say how about your aunts Ida & Anna did you write them yet? Ida said something of a picture of you both. I don't know if you send any, but they'd girls would be glad too hear from you. No news from the outside lately, you read in the paper of all that happens, so I have not much to tell. Ma is fine only a little tired, so she is talking of her vacation and rest, nothing to do but sleep and eat. (But I tell you on the quit that when they get back they are worst tired than when they leave.) Well, 2 o'clock, we will all, that is ma, Vi, and I, that is all what's home right now. turn on the radio and listen too the program from the Quintuplets 1st. Birthday partie. Daisy said hello in the phone to you, all is well. Good wishes from us all and good luck too you both.

Love from your Father
